

OFFICIAL NOTICES JANUARY 2009

The Dean's Office of the School of Business, Camden (SBC, School 52) will list new policies, procedures and/or changes for the benefit of the University community. It is the students' responsibility to be informed. This effort is designed to make this information available to the broadest possible audience in the widest possible forum available to the campus community. Please pay careful attention and make every effort to comply. Official notices will be published in the Gleaner the first week of the month. Please direct your questions regarding these notices to asksbc@camden.rutgers.edu.

(1) Scholastic (Academic) Standing

Any student whose cumulative GPA is below 2.00 is placed on academic probation and is subject to academic restrictions. You are required to meet with the Academic Services Office to address your academic standing. Administrative and financial holds may be placed on students' records who have not met with the Academic Services Office. If the cumulative grade point average does not improve to at least a 2.000 by the end of this semester, you may be subject to academic dismissal in accordance with the policies in the current College Catalog.

(2) Business Policy Enrollment (Effective January 2009)

Only students who have completed the Business Core (See Below) and have completed at least 90 credits will be permitted to enroll in Business Policy (52:620:450). Students should meet with an Academic Services staff member to adjust graduation plan to comply with this policy, if needed. There will be no exceptions or considerations for special circumstances!
